

RFID Update's continuing series of profiles of industry companies looks at Time Domain, which pioneered UWB technology as a government contractor before setting its sites on the commercial RTLS market.

Complete Content Not Available in PDF Format See: <http://www.rfidjournal.com/article/view/7139>